Resurrection Living: CHRIST IS RISEN INDEED!

Did you know that the church calendar allots four weeks of Advent to prepare for two weeks of Christmas and forty days (minus the Sundays) of Lent to prepare for FIFTY days of celebrating Easter?

This pattern emphasizes Easter as the most important season in the church calendar, our high point of the church year. Christmas may get more cultural attention, but Easter tells the rest of the story. Easter reminds us that Jesus' birth matters because how he lived, died, and rose again for all of us.

Of course, it's not as if we have just fifty days to celebrate Easter—Jesus' resurrection is a reality that shapes and re-shapes us and our world everyday, every moment, every breath. It never turns off, never fades from one season into the next like spring into summer, never wilts like daffodils past their prime.

Easter never ends. The Resurrection reality began over 2000 years ago and continues on and on and on, unfolding in our lives every second. That's why the worst thing that happens to us is never the last thing that happens to us: God gets the last word. And God's word on death is Jesus' resurrection: "Why do you look for the living among the dead? He is not here; he has risen!" (Luke 24:5-6).

So wherever there is bad news, God is yet weaving another part of the story, a resurrection part. Wherever there is death, new life (eventually) emerges. Wherever there is a letting go, an ending, even an evil act, we will find our God still at work, fulfilling the resurrection of our Lord.

As my time here among you draws to a close, I am celebrating all the little moments of new life and resurrection over this past year. You have been with me as I endured the hardest thing I have ever faced: the death of my father. Your prayers, love, and kindnesses helped sustain me. I thank God for you.

Together, God has helped us move forward into "Resurrection Living," stepping into the new even while honoring the old. After all, Good Friday is not erased by Easter, but finds its deepest meaning there. I find this also to be true of my own hardest times. Resurrection does not erase those hard times, but gives them meaning and keeps them from being the last thing.

My prayers are with all of us as we step into a new chapter in the life of our congregation and the next part of Resurrection Living. How good it will be to live into all that God is unfolding for us! CHRIST IS RISEN INDEED!

*Blessings,
Alicia*

A Message from the Pastor Search Committee

As you are aware, the Pastor Search Committee has been working very diligently over the past year. During this time we have carefully and prayerfully reviewed resumes and information from over 80 individuals. The committee appreciates all of the prayer and support that we have received over the past year. We could feel those prayers and we know that God has guided us through the entire process.

After a unanimous vote of support from all seven individuals working on the Pastor Search Committee, we are very pleased to announce that we now have a pastor candidate to present to our congregation. The committee asks that you continue to keep our church and the candidate in your prayers as we prepare for a "View to a Call" weekend, scheduled for April 23 and 24, 2016.

The congregation will have the opportunity to meet with the candidate on Saturday, April 23. The candidate will then offer the sermon at a Combined Service on Sunday, April 24. We will hold a Special Called Church Conference immediately after the service to vote on calling the new pastor. We pray that you will plan to join us for this very important time in the life of the church.

Yours in Christ,

Brian Dew, Chair, Shirley James, Vice Chair, Jeanne Arnold, Secretary, George Pinkston, Jane Walker, and Jerry Johnson

We will meet at 6:00 pm in the Fellowship Hall every Wednesday through April, except the 20th when we will have Church Conference. Join us!

MISSIONS AND MORE

Ladies of All Ages – Come Join the WMU

All women are invited to come out to the church on the second Monday of each month to join the Vera Harris Circle of the WMU as it focuses on missions education and prayer and plans missions projects in our community.

WMU NEWS.....

The Vera Harris Circle met March 14 with 9 members present. We are still bringing articles for the Help Center and have provided supplies, snacks and drinks for Cape Fear Hospice.

We are now planning our spring event which will be Saturday, May 14. We will have a patriotic theme and, of course, we unanimously voted to have Pastor Alicia as our speaker. More planning will take place next month.

Lori brought articles for Meals on Wheels and we helped to assemble them. Come join us in April. Margie Underwood, WMU Director

If you are interested in learning more about how this ministry works or if you would like to be a part of this ministry, contact Lori Griffin (798-5857). We now have volunteers to make desserts. Thanks to all our Meals on Wheels volunteers! We couldn't do this without you! The next opportunity to serve will be Saturday, April 23 at 10 am.

Martha's Kitchen

Martha's Kitchen offers a warm, free meal to members of our community twice a week. Currently, our volunteer roster is filled for this ministry, but prayers are always welcome.

food roundup

APRIL 2016

Baptist Children's Homes of NORTH CAROLINA

For the month of April, instead of collecting food for the Help Center, we will be collecting food items for the NC Baptist Children's Homes Food Roundup as a church-wide missions project. Let's share God's love by helping to feed these boys and girls who so desperately need the support of the body of Christ. A list of items is inserted in this newsletter. Thanks so much for your support!
