I know that Rev. Alicia Porterfield will do a great job of leading the church during the transition period. Her knowledge, wisdom, leadership skills, pastoral skills, teaching skills, and heart for the church will help you greatly as you continue to serve and worship the Lord during this interim period. You can trust her. And you can trust God to lead you through this time of transition – “being confident of this, that he who began a good work in you will carry it on to completion until the day of Christ Jesus” (Philippians 1:6). I know that God already has your next pastor in mind and will, in His perfect timing, help the Search Committee meet the perfect candidate, discern God’s will, and extend the invitation. Your job in the meantime is to trust, hope, serve, love, share, and grow. I believe with all of my heart that the church’s best days are still ahead. God is surely going to bless you!

As I complete my service at FBCCB, I hope that you have seen the following traits in my ministry to this church: a total and unwavering commitment to God, to the church as a whole, and to you personally; the heart of a humble servant; compassion and love; determination; a hard worker; a commitment to teach the truth from the whole counsel of God’s Word, even when uncomfortable; a passion to proclaim the Gospel message of repentance and salvation by grace through faith in Christ alone; the obedient and faith-filled following of the Holy Spirit’s guidance; and the willingness to sacrifice for others. Above all, I hope that you have seen Jesus Christ in me. Thank you for sharing your lives with me. You will never know just how much God has used you to bless my family. Thank you for your patience, your trust, your encouragement, your support, your friendship, and your love. I LOVE YOU! YOU WILL ALWAYS BE IN MY HEART! No matter where I may be, if there is ever any way I can serve you, please don’t hesitate to contact me.

I would like to close by sharing and applying two of the Apostle Paul’s prayers – one originally written to the church at Ephesus and one written to the church at Philippi. These prayers represent my heart’s desires for you: “For this reason I kneel before the Father, from whom every family in heaven and on earth derives its name. I pray that out of his glorious riches he may strengthen you with power through his Spirit in your inner being, so that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith. And I pray that you, being rooted and established in love, may have power, together with all the Lord’s holy people, to grasp how wide and long and high and deep is the love of Christ, and to know this love that surpasses knowledge - that you may be filled to the measure of all the fullness of God. Now to him who is able to do immeasurably more than all we ask or imagine, according to his power that is at work within us, to him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus throughout all generations, for ever and ever! Amen” (Ephesians 3:14-21). // “I thank my God every time I remember you. In all my prayers for all of you, I always pray with joy because of your partnership in the gospel from the first day until now, It is right for me to feel this way about all of you, since I have you in my heart and, whether I am in chains or defending and confirming the gospel, all of you share in God’s grace with me. God can testify how I long for all of you with the affection of Christ Jesus. And this is my prayer: that your love may abound more and more in knowledge and depth of insight, so that you may be able to discern what is best and may be pure and blameless for the day of Christ, filled with the fruit of righteousness that comes through Jesus Christ - to the glory and praise of God” (Philippians 1:3-11).

Always remember: God Loves You and So Do I!

Your Deacon’s

It is a true blessing
to have the opportunity to pray to, and praise an Almighty God and the Wonderful Creator of Life.

It is awesome to know that we, the body of Christ
have been given the opportunity to pray for each other,
especially those hungry, thirsty or in need.
But you know, it is also a Christ-like heart
to love our brothers and sisters so much,
that we might ask them specifically,
“What may I pray about for you?”

We are healed by our faith.

Our prayers are a great expression of our faith.

Your Deacon Body is praying for you.
Let them know what you need them to pray for.
And ask those who God allows to cross your path,
“What may I pray about for you?”
