Past, Present, and Future

As I write this article, I am in day two of jetlag, slowly adjusting back to real life after a wonder-filled nine days in Ireland. My sweet family welcomed me back home with lots of hugs, questions and piles of school papers, laundry and bills. Ah, home sweet home! ☺

I am praying that God will help me translate what I learned in Ireland into life here in North Carolina. I don't want to race back into “normal” unchanged—that would be a pretty ungrateful response to the One who made it all possible. I pray that the past few weeks will impact my present and future.

Christianity has a long history in Ireland, going back to the 5th century. That's over 1000 years before the faith came to North America! Since the 400's Irish people have been worshipping our God, building wood and then stone churches, and living out the Good News daily. One of our tour guides joked that when talking about the history of Christianity in Ireland the “recent past” means the 1700's!

As we visited churches, some in ruins, some restored, I was struck by how hard our ancestors in the faith had to work to create these houses of God. Before architects, drafting plans or complex tools, our brothers and sisters moved stones, cut and stacked them in balance, and painstakingly formed arches and windows. Hundreds of work hours and hundreds of hands were involved.

Even in churches that are now in ruins, most of the walls are still standing. There is something about praying in an ancient church, sky bright overhead where the roof once was, and sensing the deep faith in God that inspired the builders. These walls bear the marks of those who have gone before us, who have known God's goodness and responded with faithful hearts and willing hands. Their love of God and each other still stands, stone by stone by stone, still inspiring us today.

At FBC Carolina Beach, we have our own history that has shaped who we are today. Those who came before us built this church—its buildings and its faith foundation, lived out in worship, in mission and in discipleship. Their faithfulness blazed the trail for us and we continue to blaze the trail for those who will come behind us.

Combined Worship Service Senior Sunday May 31st

We are celebrating our Seniors on Sunday, May 31st in a combined service. We will be providing the BBQ chicken as the main dish at the meal following the combined service. We ask that everyone please help by bringing the sides!!! Come and let us celebrate this special time in these young people's lives and their families!!!
...Be strong and courageous. Do not be terrified; do not be discouraged, for the Lord your God will be with you wherever you go. Joshua 1:9

Be More Bible Study

Join us on May 11, Monday evening at 6:00 PM for a Beth Moore Bible study unlike any other you have taken. Breaking Free: Is freedom a reality in your life? As we identify our spiritual strongholds, we will progress on the journey toward greater freedom in Christ. This study Breaking Free is based on Isaiah 61: 1-4. For more information you can call Shirley James at 233-2829.

Wednesday Night Bible Study

Alicia will be leading an in-depth, five week study of Psalm 23, one of the most beloved passages of scripture. On Wednesday nights at 6 p.m., we will gather in the Fellowship Hall to examine Psalm 23 closely and prayerfully, consider its historical use and reflect on how it speaks to us today. Please join us!

Ladies of All Ages – Come Join the WMU

All women are invited to come out to the church on the second Monday of each month to join the Vera Harris Circle of the WMU as it focuses on missions education and prayer and plans missions projects in our community.

WMU NEWS...

Our meeting was held April 13 with 12 members present. The goats and chickens were ordered and hopefully are on their way.

Plans were finalized for the WMU Garden Party, April 25, with Alicia as our speaker. In May we will be visiting Autumn Care again. Last time they seemed to enjoy our singing. We had a captive audience!! It will be on Thursday, May 23, and hope to have a good group to go. May 11 at 1 pm is our last meeting until September so please plan to attend. Barbara Bigley will have the program and Mary Lou will be the hostess.

Margie Underwood, WMU Director

In this interim time, may we take heart that God has guided His people for thousands of years! Our brothers and sisters from days past faced hardships we can hardly imagine and still their faith flourished. The same One who guided their steps guides ours. The same One who steadied them as they built for the future steadies us, too. The same One who grew their faith is growing ours, too.

In Christ's Everlasting Love,
Alicia

Note: As we grieve our dear sister Glenda Odom Hurley, we give thanks for the many ways God worked through her to bless the world. She has now joined the company of those who are cheering us on in this life. She leaves a legacy just as real as those stone churches in Ireland, in every life she touched and every person she loved. May the witness of her faith and graciousness continue to comfort our hearts and bolster our faith into the future.

Baptist Men

All men are invited to join us for our breakfast meetings/mission projects. Our next breakfast is May 31st at 8 am. For more information, or to recommend possible mission projects, please contact Ben Yarborough, (398-8023).

Pastor Search News Update

We have started the process of finding our new Pastor. Your Pastor Search Committee has elected officers and taken the first steps toward finding a New Pastor for First Baptist Church of Carolina Beach. Chairman Brian Dew, Co-chair Shirley James, Secretary Jeannie Arnold, George Pinkston, Ben Yarborough, Alternate Jane Walker, and Alternate Jerry Johnson began our time together in prayer. We will continue to be in prayer through this process, and we will be thankful to our Lord for His perfect will to be done at the end of our search and forever more. We ask that you continue to pray for each of us. Pray for strength, wisdom, unity, spiritual eyes and a spiritual heart while we pursue this important task. Let's remain committed to Alicia Porterfield and this interim period and we will keep you updated throughout the search process.

We love you.
